FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tec-Masters, Inc. Mentors PTP under the Mentor Protégé Program (MPP) - Revised

Huntsville, Alabama: August 23, 2016 – Tec-Masters, Inc. kicked off their Mentor Protégé Program (MPP) award from the Department of Defense (DoD) Office of Small Business Programs (OSBP) – sponsored by the Missile Defense Agency (MDA). Under this agreement, Tec-Masters will mentor People, Technology, and Processes (PTP), in the areas of Technology Transfer, Business Development, and other business systems and processes.

“We believe small businesses provide the Federal Government great value and solutions in a cost sensitive environment,” says Tec-Masters President and CEO, Dr. Marvin P. Carroll. “Small businesses like PTP can effectively provide these cost effective solutions. We are always open to share our best practices and lessons learned from technology and business processes with a fast growing company like PTP.”

PTP is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) with headquarters in Lakeland, FL. They provide Information Technology (IT) professional services, software development, and knowledge management services. They also have expanded solutions to include data visualization, knowledge management training, and post deployment system/software support.

“We are honored to be a protégé to Tec-Masters and to be a part of the DoD and MDA Mentor Protégé Program,” says Vic Buonamia, Founder and CEO of PTP. “We look forward to collaborating with Tec-Masters and learn from their rich history of technology development and business knowledge. We are especially impressed by Tec-Masters’ culture of integrity and service.”

As a part of the program, a Historically Black College and University (HBCU), Oakwood University, will partner with Tec-Masters to assist PTP in developing Quality Systems such as ISO and CMMI.

Established by Congress in 1991, the U.S. Department of Defense Mentor Protégé Program helps small businesses boost Prime and Subcontract awards by creating long-term relationships with larger, established, successful companies.

Headquartered in Huntsville, Alabama, Tec-Masters, a Nunn-Perry Mentor Protégé Program Awardee, has supported the Defense Industry and Commercial customers for over 28 years. The company specializes in Mission Support, System Integration, Maintenance, Training, Creative Multimedia, Logistics, Cyber Security, Information Technology, Software Development, and Customized Engineering and Manufacturing.
